Until All Have Heard...

Dear praying friends,

Taking the advice of younger people who are “in the know,” we are switching to this new monkey mail business (MailChimp) with the hopes of restoring our former flow of monthly email updates. Thanks to Joshua Harrison and Sarah Aron for helping design this new template. Please pray that we don’t lose any prayer supporters in the process.

Last Thursday I returned from a 3-week trip to Singapore to welcome Phineas Taylor Loker, born March 10th, weighing almost ten pounds. He was in the special care nursery due to his congenital heart problems (thankfully diagnosed in utero), but looked out of place next to tiny little babies, mostly born prematurely. Phin is doing well now, praise the Lord, and Mike and Amy and their three boys are returning to Indonesia on Monday, April 2nd. I am thankful for the wonderful new memories made with Titus and Silas, age 3 and 2, whom I hadn’t seen since last March.

Jim is currently in Thailand attending the Erasia Media Distribution Conference. He and several others from our ASM office in Holland are there networking with others involved in related ministries, learning and sharing about the latest gadgets and technology for reaching people groups around the world. He will be returning on Tuesday to begin the process of shifting back in time 12 hours just as I am finally adjusting. Don't complain to me about Daylight Savings this year. I'm not hearing it. My days and nights are beyond messed up.

After sending the February update we hosted another team who came to Oaxaca. One extra blessing was having my sister, Marsha, with us on the ministry team in February! I have written up one testimony from that week of ministry on our blog, here. Please take time to click on the link and read this inspiring story. As I said on Facebook, I was there, I witnessed it, I wrote it, and even still I am in awe. God answered prayers mightily! Thank you for partnering with us in prayer.

Please join us now in praying for our next team trips April 14-21 and April 21-28. Both of those are going to be the rugged sleep-on-the-floor-in-hot-places and hike-during-the-day type trips, both sure to push us all beyond our comfort zones. When we return from this next trip to Oaxaca, Jim will be leaving for Uganda to assist in training pastors in chronological Bible teaching and how to use audio Bibles in small groups.

Meanwhile Debbie has enjoyed her six weeks of independence, staying healthy for the most part. She attended the annual MK (missionary kid) camp in Puebla as a junior counselor and is volunteering at the Oaxaca Christian School and helping in other ways while she is there on her own. Once she and I return on May 1st, we start back in with further medical tests and interventions. May 3rd she is scheduled for another MRI of her brain to see about the possibility of having a small pituitary tumor removed.

And on it goes. This is a very busy year. More than ever we appreciate your prayers!

As you celebrate the resurrection of Jesus, rejoice with us that many people groups in Mexico are hearing this wonderful news for the first time in their mother tongue! We are thankful for our friend, Loren Hawthorne, and others who are working to upload the audio scripture recordings our studio has produced. You can hear them on ScriptureEarth.com. As of today, native speakers can watch a simple video to accompany the audio text related to the crucifixion and resurrection. Here is a sample of this video in one of the Nahuatl dialects.
